Miss Lomita Contestant Sets Date

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Spencer, of 1708 W. 238th St., have announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Diana Lee, to Carroll Page Johnson Jr.

The former Miss Lomita contestant and Mr. Johnson will be married July 11 in a double ring ceremony at Lake Tahoe. A wedding reception is planned for July 13 at the home of the bride.

Miss Spencer, a graduate of Narbonne High School, is a

Rebekahs Entertain Officers

Mrs. Vina Johnson, Noble Grand of the Trio Rebekah Lodge 240, Independent Order of Oddfellows of Lomita, was presented with a plaque by Mrs. Edith Bench, heart chairman, at the June meeting held at the Masonic Hall, 2725 Bland Place.

Each officer had as a guest a courtesy officers of her own station from another lodge. There were nine lodges represented. Each guest was introduced and received a gift of pastel candles made by Mrs. Lillie Van Driel and Mrs. Emma Schummer.

A skit was presented by members of the Trio and Compton lodges, depicting a garden of flowers growing and an old fashioned girl watering them. Mrs. Esther Hansen portrayed "Mary, Mary, Quite Contrary."

Mrs. Hattie Schroeder was presented a year record book by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith and Mrs. Eleanor Farquhar.

Mrs. Georgia Smith, past district deputy president of District 84, and her staff from Compton 385, transferred the official books and records to Mrs. Hattie Schroeder.

Hostess for the evening was Mrs. Lillie Van Driel. The tables were decorated with pastel candles and flowers. The flowers were from the gardens of Mmes. Esther Hansen, Mary Smith, Marie Daktor, Lillie Van Driel and Emma Schummer.

Y-Teen Club Will Present Program

The Bel Air Y-Teen Club will present a program titled "Luncheon is Served" tomorrow at the Torrance YWCA, 2320 W. Carson St., at noon.

Open to the public, and of special interest to housewives and mothers, the program will include special homemaker tips on consumer food products.

Child care will be available. Further information may be obtained by calling the YWCA, FA 0-2255.

former member of Job's Daughters, Bethel 137. She is presently active in fashion modeling.

Mr. Johnson, also a graduate of Narbonne High School, served four years in the Coast Guard and is with Harvey Aluminum, Torrance.

ANNIVERSARY TRADITION . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Lucero, 5112 Sharynne Lane, cut multitiered cake in observance of their golden wedding anniversary here Saturday. Marriage vows were repeated at the First Baptist Church of Wilmington and a reception followed at the Torrance-Lomita Board of Realtors hall at 22833 Arlington Ave.

Luceros Repeat Vows On 50th Anniversary

Wedding vows exchanged 50 years ago on Saturday, June 22, 1913, in Aguilar, Colo., were repeated here last Saturday at the First Methodist Church of Wilmington by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Lucero Sr. of 5112 Sharynne Lane.

Sons and daughters of the couple and relatives from as far away as Colorado attended the celebration honoring the couple who met in Colorado when she was 12 years of age. Mrs. Lucero was 16, he was 23 at that wedding date 50 years ago. They moved to Denver in 1919 where the couple's children were born, and on to Southern California in 1945.

Saturday's celebration began at the church where the Rev. Dr. E. C. Laswell officiated in the renewal of vows. The Rev. Charles Martinez, son of the couple's former pastor in Colorado, assisted the rites. Mrs. Laswell was organist, and Mrs. Maurice Patchet sang "Because" and "O Perfect Love."

Two of the granddaughters, Barbara Vigil and Linda Lucero, served as candlelighters, and the bride was given away by the couple's son, Henry Lucero.

Sons Ernest Jr. and Alex Lucero served as ushers. Mrs. Joe Albillar, daughter of Mrs. Lucero's first matron of honor, served in that post Saturday and her husband was best man.

The Luceros have seven living children, all of them attending Saturday's celebration. The couple also has 25 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

Daughters present Saturday included Mrs. Rosalie Yost, Mrs. Dee Roberts, Mrs. Doris Flack, Mrs. Lou Vigil, all of this area. Sons were Ernest Jr., Alex of Castro Valley, and Henry of Torrance.

A buffet luncheon was served at the reception attended by approximately 200 persons. Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Abel Borgas, childhood friends now living in San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Chris Salas of Castro Valley; Mrs. Dorothy Hunsiker, Fremont, Calif.; Mrs. Louise Salas, Castro Valley; and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Leake and family of Tucson, Ariz. Also attending were two brothers of Mr. Lucero, Eugene and Max Valentine, both of Colorado. The brothers had not met for several years.

The group was entertained by music provided by the band of Albert Muro of Torrance.

 mother had died when I was an infant and that my mother was actually my stepmother. This came as a surprise but not a shock.

My step-mother is a sensitive woman so I have never brought up the subject since and neither has she.

My own children are now 10 and 11 years of age and I have never told them. Young children sometimes say the wrong thing and I'd feel terrible if they embarrassed their grandmother in any way.

We do not live in the same city and the children see their grandmother infrequently. Do you think they should be told? Or is it best to leave sleeping dogs lie? - UNDECIDED

Dear Undecided: There are no dogs around—just facts. And I see no reason why the children should not be told. They will probably show surprisingly little interest in the subject since they themselves are not involved. You'll wonder why you made such a big deal of it.

Confidential to HEART-SICK: Time wounds all heels and he'll get his. Don't spend another minute thinking about how to get even. It's bootless and destructive.
